

A Guide to our Early Help Offer

Early Help is our approach to providing support to students and their families when problems have emerged or support and guidance is required. Through prompt and targeted interventions, issues and problems can be prevented from becoming acute and chronic.

